

Music sooths during holiday season

Connecticut rockers Talking To Walls (Brian Kelley and MCW Alum Nat Webb of Harrison) command the stage. Photo/Luis Ruiz

Students perform at the "Holiday Jazz" concert. Photo/Jon Chattman

Last month The Music Conservatory of Westchester held an Acoustic Sleigh Ride Benefit Concert and a Holiday Jazz concert, wherein both faculty and student performers played festive selections from the American Songbook, as well as debuted original compositions. Upcoming events at the Music Conservatory of Westchester include a special comedy benefit fundraiser on Friday, Jan. 14 and "Piano, Percussion, and Harp" on Jan. 15 with special performances of original compositions by conservatory students. For more information on these performances or additional concert offerings, call 914-761-3900 or visit www.musicconservatoryonline.org.